ALIAMANU MIDDLE SCHOOL MAKAHIKI

On June 3, 2015 several members of our Pearl Harbor Hawaiian Civic Club volunteered at Aliamanu Middle School. It was the last day of school for the students. While the 8th graders had a banquet, the 7th graders had a makahiki. Karen Alamida's niece, Ashley Padua-Alamida, coordinated the event. Ashley teaches 7th grade Social Studies at Aliamanu Middle School. Members Karen Alamida, Kaitlin Alamida, LaJoy Hanohano, and Ka'iulani Hess helped with the event. The students learned a hula, did arm wrestling, played chicken fight, played tug-of-war, and ran a 50-yard dash. The students had a blast! Thank you to our club members for giving service in our community!

WHAT IS THE LILI'UOKALANI TRUST?

Would you like to know more about Lili'uokalani Trust and the many benefits they have to offer? The Lili'uokalani Trust Organization is interested in coming to meet with members of Pearl Harbor Hawaiian Civic Club, their families and friends to educate everyone of the many programs and benefits they have to offer Hawaiians. We would welcome everyone to attend this meeting so members are encouraged to invite anyone and everyone.

We would like to schedule two meetings with members, families and friends; one being in the Pearl City area and the other in the Aiea area. We are asking members to call and get on a list so we can build a list of people in each area and we could make a schedule for these meetings.

Please call (808) 479-3263 for Charles Kapua and say where you would like to attend these meetings. We would like to have at least twelve or more people at each of these meetings. As soon as we hit our goal of attendees we will make a schedule with at least two dates and call you back to check if you can make those dates. Majority rule applies, if we have more people requesting we can also schedule another meeting time so this can be as flexible as you and time permits. Look forward for an enlightening experience and learn about the Lili'uokalani Trust and what they are all about. Call now!

SCHOLARSHIPS - The application deadline is coming up on June 30, 2015. If you need an application call Uncle Charlie Kapua at 479-3263. The scholarships will be awarded at our July Meeting.
